

Winter Break 2012

141 East Main Street - Riverhead

www.eastendarts.org - 631.369.2171 - education@eastendarts.org

PICTURING AMERICA

Instructor: Liz Vaiana-Cavanagh

A fun series of one-hour classes using collage, quilting, clay and other techniques. We will create our own masterpieces based on different styles of American art. From Native to Modern, choose from Coil Pots (2/21), Quilt-style wall-hangings (2/22), collage based on Romare Beardon's work (2/23), and even a wildlife theme! (2/24)

TUESDAY-FRIDAY, February 21-24

Location: EEA Art Room, Riverhead

10:00-11:00AM, (Ages 5-7)

11:30-12:30PM, (Ages 8-10)

Cost per class: $12 EEA members / $18 non-members

THE AFFECTS OF MUSIC AND POETRY ON WATERCOLORS

Instructor: Deirdre Humphrey

Students will learn Watercolor painting techniques in this 1-day workshop. Using art and music activities to illustrate poems they have created while listening to music, they will also discover how music affects colors, design and words. Students will be encouraged to use their creativity through exploration and problem-solving to capture the natural curiosity, magic, wonder and natural joy of learning that we all carry within. (Ages 10+)

WEDNESDAY, February 22, 10:30AM-12:00PM,

Location: EEA Carriage House, Riverhead

Cost: $18 EEA members / $27 non-members

MY ARTIST BOOK

Instructor: Rosamaria Eisler

Students will print, illustrate, write, collage, and color their own book, mixing text and images. Choosing a theme of their choice, (i.e.: "My life," "I love __," "My friends and family," etc.), students will learn how to create prints on paper using the printmaking press and also by hand. On the second day, they will enhance their prints with collage and make their very own accordion form book. The final results will be an original portable work of art in the form of a book using printmaking processes and mixed media. (Ages 10+)

THURSDAY & FRIDAY, 10:30AM-1:30PM, February 23, 24

Location: EEA Carriage House, Riverhead

Cost: $60 EEA members / $90 non-members

THEATER TIME FOR KIDS

Instructor: Liz Casey

Creative fun and imaginative play abound in this interactive theater workshop. Participants will engage in expressive movement, vocal exercises, and theater games and activities in a safe and nurturing environment. The group-dynamic will be built early on through trust-builders and ice-breakers. As we move through the week, participants will gain public speaking skills, increase their self-confidence and get real theater tips and techniques as they explore the art of pantomime and improvisation—all while having loads of fun!

TUESDAY-FRIDAY, February 21-24

Location: EEA Music Room, Riverhead

10:00-11:00AM, (Ages 8-10)

11:30-12:30PM, (Ages 5-7)

Cost: $48 EEA members / $72 non-members

THEATER WORKSHOP (Ages 10+)

Instructor: Sandra Bianco

In a mini-weekday workshop, we begin the work of forming an ongoing ensemble of talent - actors, writers and directors - all working together to create a dramatic work in progress. Using improvisation, script writing, storytelling, and other tools from the performing artist's toolkit, we will play out our ideas for an invited audience.

TUESDAY-FRIDAY, February 21-24, Location: EEA Carriage House, Riverhead, 10:00-11:30AM, (Ages 10+)

Cost: $60 EEA members / $90 non-members