EEAC is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization recognized by the IRS and the NYS Bureau of Charities.

The East End Arts & Humanities Council, Inc. was founded in 1972 to serve artists and promote the arts on the East End of Long Island. Located in the historic Davis-Corwin (circa 1840) and Benjamin homes (circa 1850) on East Main Street in Riverhead, the Arts Council operates an art gallery and gift shop, as well as the region's only School of the Arts. Approximately 13% of the students receive scholarship based on financial need. In the gallery there is a new exhibit approximately every eight weeks, featuring both well-known and yet-to-be-discovered artists. The original work of local craftspeople is sold on consignment in Gallery's gift shop. The Arts Council also presents the arts at various locations all over the East End and is proud of its many collaborations in the public and private sector. East End Arts Council administers the Strategic Opportunities Stipend grant program for artists of all disciplines and the Local Capacity Building grants for arts-in-education for Nassau and Suffolk County.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It is with pride that we present East End Arts Council's 2008 Annual Report. We are gratified by the progress we made in our programming, outreach into varied segments of our community, and advocacy for our membership. From the very personal one-to-one level of teaching a new skill or sharing the love of an instrument by making music together, to the broader involvement of economic development through cultural tourism, we have successfully reached new audiences and helped to keep the East End a vibrant arts community.

We encourage you to review the highlights of our year. You will easily recognize our achievements, and also our challenges. Our budget for fiscal year 2008 approached $1,000,000. We are honored to steward these funds into programs that serve and expand the arts community, while also bringing many benefits to the community at large. We remain focused on our mission of making sure that the arts experience is available and strong on the East End. To do so, we continue to explore public and private funding sources that support our initiatives. New York State, Suffolk County, and our corporate and individual sponsors cannot be appreciated enough for their financial support, especially during these daunting economic times. Our membership, participating artists, employees, faculty, and volunteers are our core and our successes could not have been possible without them.

Thanks to all of them for East End Arts Council's 36th year, and for serving as the strong and stable base onto which we will continue to build our future. Many thanks also to you, for your interest in learning more about the East End Arts Council and its work. We invite you to join us, in whatever way you can, in support of the rich cultural community that continues to grow here on the East End.

SANDRA NOVICK, President

PAT SNYDER, Executive Director

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS OF FISCAL YEAR 2007-2008

WINTERFEST

The Winterfest, newly minted as “Jazz on the Vine” was an extraordinary success, proving once again the importance of the arts in a vibrant economy. Twenty-one wineries on the East End of Long Island were overflowing with guests at 50 concerts from February through March, a time of year that historically has been the wineries’ slow season!

TEENY AWARDS®

The Teeny Awards® celebrated its 6th year and welcomed the Port Jefferson Arts Council and Islip Arts Council as a partners in this unique effort to recognize and award talented high school theatre students.. Within our constituent area of eastern Long Island, 17 schools participated in this 8 month program and 75 students were recognized at the full-house, formal awards ceremony modeled after the Tony Awards and held at the Westhampton Beach Performing Arts Center.

TALKING DRUM

The Talking Drum continues to be an exciting program that teaches West African drumming skills to teens. Initiated with funds from the Rockefeller Music Fund and the New York State Council on the Arts, the Talking Drum has reached over 100 teens and numerous adults. We made drumming accessible by bringing it to several new locations including the Anti-Bias Task Force Picnic, the Community Mosaic Street Painting Festival, Southampton Youth Services, Friendship Baptist Church and the Family Service League.

EEAC SCHOOL OF THE ARTS

We believe that discovering a child’s potential begins with the arts. Arts education promotes problem solving, creative thinking, self expression and communication skills. The EEAC School of the Arts is dedicated to providing arts opportunities to all children. Scholarships based on financial need are available and in fiscal year 2008, 65 of our students received need-based scholarships totaling $27,203.

COLLABORATIONS

EEAC takes pride in its connection to the East End arts community. Through service, education and presentation, EEAC has touched the lives of an extensive group of individuals and families, and has collaborated with numerous East End organizations. We welcomed new partnerships with the Watermill Center as we gave joint programs on the “Creative Spirit” and Suffolk Community College Culinary Arts School and LI Farm Bureau who partnered with us for our gallery exhibit “Food.” We continued ongoing collaborations with the Long Island Wine Council, Long Island Convention and Visitors Bureau, Riverhead Chamber of Commerce, Suffolk County Community College, WLIU 88.3 FM, Westhampton Beach Performing Arts Center, Suffolk County Historical Society, Riverhead Free Library, and the Long Island Science Center.

EVENING OF THANKS

Our first Evening of Thanks was held in the exquisitely renovated Brecknock Hall at Peconic Landing. It was our pleasure to thank and honor long time supporters of the arts in a gracious venue with food and wine pairing compliments of area restaurants and vineyards.

The recipients were:

Bonnie Grice, Music Director, WLIU, Spokesperson for the Arts
Barry Barth, Barth's Drug Store, Business Person for the Arts
Edgar Goodale, Riverhead Building Supply, Business for the Arts
Troy Gustavson, Times Review Newspapers, Promoter of the Arts
Senator Ken LaValle, Public Official for the Arts
Assemblyman Fred Thiele, Public Official Friend of the Arts
Bob Berks, Sculptor, Lifetime Arts Achievement
Ranny Reeve, Jazz Pianist, Inspirational Arts Educator

EEAC GOALS

SERVICE

The East End Arts Council offers workshops that support the professional development of artists of all disciplines. Visual artists benefit from direct interaction with gallery owners and specialists that provide training in necessary skills. Workshop topics in 2008 included Appraising Art, Picture Framing and Franchising & Licensing. Our efforts in providing presentation opportunities for visual artists included eight juried shows in the EEAC Gallery, four exhibits at Rosalie Dimon Gallery at Jamesport Manor and six exhibits in Riverhead Town Hall, as well as arts consultations with gallery owner, Peter Marcelle. Also available to all disciplines were several grant writing presentations and funding opportunities. A Musician's Think Tank brought the music community together to network and learn about available programs. A summer Speaker Series gave attendees insight into the lives of accomplished and well respected artists, musicians and poets.

EDUCATION

The EEAC School of the Arts is a training ground for aspiring musicians, actors and visual artists. Our students range in age from preschool through adult. We offer music instruction on most instruments and voice, visual art classes in every area of drawing and painting, and improvisation theatre classes. Thirteen percent of our students receive need-based scholarship for study. While most classes take place in Riverhead, there are also several outreach and off-site offerings including the Talking Drum, an African drumming program, and The Teeny Awards a high school theatre recognition program. Each year we coordinate the First Congressional District High School Art Competition.

PRESENTATION AND CULTURAL TOURISM

The East End Arts Council believes that if the arts are strong within a community, the community is strong. Our presentation and cultural tourism programming are offered at low or no cost. As noted above we have more than 15 gallery exhibits per year in our gallery, in our Carriage House and within the community. We provide the opportunities for artists to show their work and for musicians to perform. Additional signature events include the Harvest Gospel Concerts, the Wine Press Concert Series, The Long Island Winterfest Jazz on the Vine and the annual Riverhead Community Mosaic Street Painting Festival.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Key financial highlights for fiscal year 2008 follow below. Expenses associated with educational programming, and the arts programs and specific services provided for our membership accounted for 80% of EEAC's expenses. We are proud to report that 82 cents on every dollar that passes through the East End Arts Council go directly to programs and services that enhance arts opportunities in our communities. Only 10 cents on a dollar is utilized for management and administration expenses.

The expenses and revenues charts reflect the financial challenge we face each year. EEAC depends on public grants, fundraising events, individual donations and corporate sponsorships to fill the gap between programming revenue streams and the costs of the outstanding programs and services EEAC provides. These additional funding sources allow EEAC to attract talented faculty, provide scholarships to the School of the Arts and summer camp programs, and to expand our work and influence by taking a leadership role in cultural programs that serve the larger East End community.

MAKING A GIFT TO EAST END ARTS COUNCIL

There are many opportunities to help EEAC continue the artistic legacy of Long Island's East End.

CORPORATE AND INDIVIDUAL GIVING

Corporate and individual gifts are crucial funding sources. Your gift enables EEAC to achieve our mission of bringing the arts to everyone and inspiring our communities through support, advocacy and education. Your contribution may be restricted to a specific program or directed towards the support the general operating fund.

SCHOLARSHIP FUND

EEAC School of the Arts provides innovative programming in music, visual arts and theatre instruction. It fosters an appreciation and understanding of the arts, the historical significance of the arts in society and the ability for the arts to transcend cultural barriers and promote understanding. There is always a waiting list for scholarship requests. In fiscal year 2008 13% of the student body received full or partial scholarships. Your contribution will allow EEAC to continue the tradition of making our educational programs available to a diverse student body.

CARRIAGE HOUSE CAPITAL CAMPAIGN

Naming opportunities may honor or commemorate a loved one, a family or family foundation, or provide a corporate branding opportunity. Your contribution to the Carriage House Capital Campaign of $1,000 or more qualifies for a 25% New York State credit under the Empire Development Zone program.

HONORARIUMS AND MEMORIALS

Honor a loved one with a gift to EEAC in their name.

PLANNED GIVING

Preserve EEAC's mission of cultural enrichment and accessibility for future generations while achieving estate planning goals. Ongoing contributions may be made through tax-deferred retirement plans and life insurance, charitable trusts, life income gifts, and monetary, stock or real estate bequests.

The East End Arts Council is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization recognized by the IRS and the NYS Bureau of Charities.

For information on how to make a gift, contact Cathy Gerardi at 727-0900, extension 303 or CGerardi@eastendarts.org.
